

CITY OF LAS VEGAS CITIZENS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY CLASS OF 2006 APPLICATION

The Las Vegas Citizens Leadership Academy (LVCLA) is designed to give citizens an opportunity to increase their knowledge about local government operations, the roles and responsibilities of municipal government, and the services provided by the city of Las Vegas.

LVCLA Participants Will:

- Gain insight into the purpose and function of municipal government
- Gain exposure to community issues facing the city
- Develop an understanding of citizen's role in government
- Learn of ways to partner with the city to develop creative and insightful solutions to community issues

Sessions are hosted by the City Manager and bring together representatives from city departments and outside agencies to help citizens understand the complexities of city government.

Participant Selection

Interested citizens may apply by submitting a completed LVCLA application, commitment pledge, and resumé. A selection committee, made up of representatives from the City Manager's Office, will review each application, and 25 participants will be selected to represent the diverse residents and neighborhoods throughout Las Vegas. Selected participants will be notified by mail during the week of August 21.

Applications are judged based on:

- Willingness to commit time and energy to complete the program
- Personal commitment to shape the future of the community
- Past volunteer and civic involvement
